

Informationally Complete Measurement

An informationally complete measurement is one in which the set of the probabilities of outcomes  $\{\text{Tr}[\rho E_k]\}$  can be inverted to uniquely determine the state  $\rho$ . The construction of bases that implement informationally complete measurements is discussed in [660].